WHAT WE DO

Dr Layo Adeniyi, CEO

Our medical personnel search team is led by Dr Layo Adeniyi a Swedish trained surgeon with Africa and Middle East experience in healthcare management and consultancy service.

Other members of the team include Mrs Wosenu Motuka, a Registered Nurse/Midwife with over 20 years experience in Africa, Philipine, and Dubai Ms Ann Rolf, a Human Resource Manager and Emmanuel Delahunt, the Executive Director.

*Emmanuel Delahunt
Executive Director*

We articulate the fact that diversity and excellence are fully compatible goals and can be pursued simultaneously. This helps us to identify selection criteria and develop the need description prior to recommending candidates. Professional qualifications are crucial in determining occupational knowledge, this is why we place premium on the Institution attended by applicants.

*Ann Rolf
Recruitment/Placement
Manager*

When placing vacancy on our notice board, we aim for consensus on specific specialties or requirements, while planning to cast the hiring net as broadly as possible. We make sure that the position description does not needlessly limit the pool of applicants. For some position descriptions we may insist on experiences, while yet in others we lay emphasis on training. We consider as important selection criteria for all candidates regardless of their demographic characteristics, we consider the ability of the candidate to add intellectual diversity to the healthcare facility environment.
